6. Check if the Bluetooth connection is successful.

6.1 How to check if your bluetooth connection is successful

Our watch has two bluetooths. You can take out your watch, turn on the screen, and swipe down to see if the Bluetooth connection is successful.

- Blue: App Bluetooth. You can normally receive information, display the weather, watch monitoring data can be synchronized to the app normally.
- Orange: Voice Bluetooth. Once connected, you can use the voice assistant, make calls, and play music on the watch.

The blue + orange connection status is displayed on the watch, which means the connection is successful. If only blue or only orange is displayed, the watch can only perform the corresponding function, and the other function cannot be used normally.

6.2 What to do when Bluetooth connection only shows blue/orange.

6.2.1 When the bluetooth connection only shows blue

Slide down the phone screen, long press the bluetooth icon, long press the bluetooth icon again, you can see one SOUYIE L1 is connected, and the other one is not connected. Click the not connected one. Two connected SOUYIE L1 means the connection is successful. Then you can check that the connection status of your watch has changed to blue + orange.

6.2.2 When the bluetooth connection only shows orange

It may be that SMART-TIMEPRO is deleted from the background running, please enter 【SMART-TIMEPRO】 , click 【Device】 , wait for a few seconds, SOUYIE L1 shows the blue connection and the green battery. Then you can check that the connection status of your watch has changed to blue + orange.
